As per order No . V . 25011/276/2009 – HR Government of india ministry of Health and Family Welfare Department of Health Research, Nieman Bhawan , New Delhi Dated – 05.05.2020, all systems of medicine not recognized as separate systems should not be allowed to continue full time Bachelor and Masters degree and the term doctor should be used only by practitioners of systems of medicine recognized by Government of India.

Further based on the essential & desirable criteria, electropathy is to not qualified as a system of medicine. Therefore, it is clear that, in accordance with this order, electropathy cannot run full time bachelor and Masters degree and those practicing this cannot use the term "Doctor".

NEHM , as in so far as recognizing the courses run by them, it is clarified that the concerned boards / statutory bodies like the Medical council, give recognition to courses. Since electropathy is not recognized as a system of medicine, there is no system for recognition of any course run by them in the Health Ministry.

As Electropathy is not recognized as system of medicine, as per TNCERA your application is rejected.

But in accordance with orders of the High Court & Supreme Court quoted here above , there is no proposal to stop the petitioners from practicing in electropathy or imparting education, as long as this is done within the provision of the Order No R.14015/25/96-U & H ( R ) (Pt) dated 25.11.2003.Once the legislation to recognize new systems of medicine is enacted, any practice or education would be regulated in accordance with the said Act for Electropathy.
